

Latino Psychological Association of New Jersey (LPANJ)

Every year, the Association awards one scholarship in the amount of $250 each. The requirements for prospective applicants are: 1) Must be enrolled in a graduate program (Master or Doctoral level) in the field of psychology 2) Adequate demonstration of academic potential. Prospective applicants will be asked to submit the enclosed application form and a one-page essay. The essay should speak of present or future involvement (clinical, research) in mental health in the Latino community and why you believe you should be a recipient of this scholarship. The paper or email application submission deadline will be August 31, 2011.
